

YOU'VE CHANGED— AND SO HAVE WE:

22 NEW AND EXCITING THINGS TO SEE AT HOME

The Fundy Trail Parkway is complete!

This famed stretch of coastal road now connects Alma to St. Martins along the Fundy coastline, with unforgettable vistas and great hiking. You can even book a stay at the Hearst Lodge. (2021)

LEARN MORE

1

Florenceville-Bristol is now the home of everything potato! It's also where you can try the famous potato milkshake.

LEARN MORE

2

Saint John is building a container village, following the success of the Area 506 festival! Come summer you'll be able to shop and dine in an all-new urban experience. (2022)

LEARN MORE

3

Our Provincial Parks have seen many accommodation upgrades, so you can sleep under the stars with a roof over your head OR a tent.

LEARN MORE

4

You can cycle the Acadian Peninsula with 610km of trails along the Veloroute. (2019)

LEARN MORE

5

Mount Carleton is so much more than the Maritimes' highest peak. The newly completed post-and-beam lodge serves as a hub for summer fun, with a café for tasty treats, fireplaces to stay warm come winter, and the perfect spot to watch the fall leaves while you listen to moose calls. (2021)

LEARN MORE

6

NB Liquor now has an amazing variety of NB distilled liquors and craft beverages, from Chicken Bones Liqueur to microbrews and more. You're invited to stop in and taste what you've been missing.

LEARN MORE

Speaking of which ... craft beer tasting rooms are popping up around the province, and Fredericton has one of the highest breweries per capita ratios in Canada.

LEARN MORE

7-8

Harvest Jazz and Blues is now the "Harvest Music Festival," bringing more music styles into the fold and expanding the audience. Book your tickets as soon as they go on sale this year. (2021)

LEARN MORE

9

You'll find coffee houses in small towns all over the province, proving that good coffee is a must, no matter where you are.

LEARN MORE

10

DYK that you can rent Sea-Doos in Shediac?

LEARN MORE

11

The Inspire Festival has turned Moncton into a city of beautiful murals and street art.

LEARN MORE

12

The Nepisiguit Mi'gmaq Trail was voted one of the 10 BEST in the world by National Geographic for 2021. Hike a portion of it, or the entirety of it. It's an experience you'll never forget (you can even overnight in a teepee).

LEARN MORE

On the flip side, the Sentier Méruimticook Trail in Northwestern NB. The 50-km multi-day trail section was completed in 2019, and the trail will expand even further in the years to come.

LEARN MORE

13-14

You can now hunt wild turkeys. Enter the lottery to win a tag or come back for other world-class hunting and fishing (and visit the historic outfitters on the Miramichi River). (2021)

LEARN MORE

15

Pokeshaw Rock now has a lookout for impeccable ocean views and road trip photo memories. (2019)

LEARN MORE

16

The Fredericton International Airport was completely overhauled, making it a modern gateway to the province by air. (2021)

LEARN MORE

17

We now have Cannabis NB. Shop with confidence around the province. (2017)

LEARN MORE

18

NB's quirky accommodations are now a major draw, with glamping domes, luxury treehouses, and family-friendly spots to stay all over.

LEARN MORE

19

Sugarloaf Provincial Park is NB's first chairlift bike park, which cements our place in the robust mountain biking community here in the province. (Don't forget the Minto trails!)

LEARN MORE

20

Love hitting the open road? Many new highway connections have been completed, making road-tripping that much easier, whether you take the two-lane or the road less travelled.

LEARN MORE

21

The highest tides in the world are nothing new, but the Hopewell Rocks are worth seeing a second (or first!) time. If you last visited by foot at low tide, you'll want to visit by kayak when the tides are in. Trust us.

LEARN MORE

22